SALE RESULTS

(212) 546-1199

Christie's, the world's oldest fine art auctioneers, held its first auction in London on December 5, 1766.

In 1977 Christie's opened its United States salerooms at 502 Park Avenue and in 1979 launched Christie's East, 219 East 67th Street. Today the firm is a major international company with 83 offices in 29 countries. Christie's holds sales in Britain, the United States, Australia, Hong Kong, Italy, Japan, Monaco, the Netherlands and Switzerland. This worldwide network of salerooms enables sellers to take advantage of seasonal selling peaks, national tastes and collecting habits, and fluctuating currency exchange rates.

Over the centuries, Christie's has conducted many of the most important sales ever held. In the late 18th century the firm negotiated the sale of Sir Robert Walpole's collection to Catherine the Great who immediately installed the works in the Hermitage where many of them can be seen today. In 1794 Christie's held a five-day sale of the contents of Sir Joshua Reynolds's studio, and sold Madame du Barry's jewels in 1795, the year she was guillotined. In 1848, in a sale lasting 40 days, the firm sold the collection of the Duke of Buckingham at Stowe House.

In more recent years, Christie's in America has sold major Impressionist, Modern and Contemporary paintings from numerous renowned collections such as those of Henry Ford II, Paul Mellon, Baron Lambert, the Tremaines and Robert B. Mayer, and from distinguished Hollywood collections such as those of William and Edith Mayer Goetz, Hal B. Wallis and Billy Wilder. Other preeminent sales held in America include the Nicholas Brown desk and bookcase which sold for $12,100,000—the record for American furniture, the jewels of Florence Gould and Caroline Ryan Foulke, the Estelle Doheny Library (which included Volume 1 of the Gutenberg Bible, sold for $5,390,000; a world record price for a printed book), and many important sales of furniture, Asian arts, porcelain, rugs, silver, stamps, wine and automobiles. In 1990, Christie's set world records for both paintings and furniture, when van Gogh's Portrait of Dr. Gachet sold for $82,500,000 in New York and the Badminton Cabinet reached $15,200,000 in London.

Information for Prospective Buyers of Coins and other numismatic items

Buyer's Premium and Sales Tax

Bidders are reminded that the final purchase price to be paid by the highest bidder shall be the aggregate of the final bid plus the buyer's premium in accordance with the provisions of Condition 4 of the Conditions of Sale. In addition, buyers are required to pay any sales or use tax which may be due, as described in Condition 9 of the Conditions of Sale.

Seller's Reserve

All lots marked with ● next to the lot number are offered subject to a reserve, which is the confidential minimum price agreed to with the seller below which the lot will not be sold ("seller's reserve"). Christie's shall act to protect the seller's reserve as agent of the seller by bidding through the auctioneer. If bidding does not reach the seller's reserve on any lot, such lot will be withdrawn from the auction by the auctioneer.

Christie's Role as Agent

Christie's accepts the consignment of property for sale at public auction solely in the capacity of agent for the seller. On occasion Christie's may advance funds to sellers against property consigned for sale. On rare occasions lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Christie's. Such lots are identified with the symbol ♦ placed next to the lot number.

Services

Christie's provides prospective buyers with the following services

- (i) Warranty for Coins and other numismatic items—Christie's warranty against counterfeit coins is provided in Paragraph 11 of the Conditions of Sale.
- (ii) Advice to Bidders—Christie's staff of specialists is available to advise prospective buyers at all pre-sale consultations or by appointment
- (iii) Price Range Estimates—Christie's publishes such catalogue the opinion of its specialists as to the estimated price range for each lot. These estimates are the approximate prices expected to be realized at auction. They are not definitive. They are prepared well in advance of the sale and are subject to revision.

(iv) Order Bids—Where bidders are unable to attend the sale, Christie's will be pleased to enter their bids without charge. If successful, the purchase price payable by the bidder will be the aggregate of the final bid and a premium of 10% of the final bid. In addition, buyers are required to pay any sales or use tax which may be due. Order Bids should always be made or confirmed in writing or by telegram or telex, reference being made to each sale through the code number printed on the title page of each catalogue. Such bids will be executed at the lowest possible price taking into account the reserve price and other bids and in accordance with the provisions of Condition 8 of the Conditions of Sale. If matching bids have been entered by two or more parties, the earliest bid shall take preference.

Successful Bids

Christie's will record the name or paddle number of the successful bidder upon the fall of the hammer, and may require such bidder to sign a bid confirmation slip. Successful order bidders shall be notified by invoice mailed immediately after the sale. Upon payment of the purchase price, the successful bidder is required to remove the property from Christie's in accordance with the provisions of Condition 7 of the Conditions of Sale. To insure that delivery is not delayed, intending bidders are encouraged to supply bank or other suitable references to Christie's prior to the auction. After payment has been made in full, Christie's will, as a service to the buyers, arrange to have property packed, insured and forwarded at the request, expense and risk of the buyer. All charges will be collect.

Prices Realized

The list of prices realized at the auction will be published shortly after the sale and will be available upon request. Where lots are withdrawn from sale or fail to reach the reserve price, the lot number will not be printed in the published list. Prices realized on any such "bought in" lot that is sold within 24 hours of the auction may be included on the list of prices realized but will be marked to indicate that such prices were not realized at the auction.

Conditions of Sale for Coins and other numismatic items

The property described in this catalogue, which description may be amended by sale room notice or announcement, will be offered for sale by Christie, Manson & Woods International, Inc. ("Christie's"), as agent for various owners or other consignors ("sellers"). These CONDITIONS OF SALE constitute the complete and exclusive statement of the terms and conditions on which all such property is offered for sale. Christie's reserves the right to vary the terms of sale. By bidding at auction, whether present in person or by agent, by written bid, telephone or other means, the buyer agrees to be bound by these Conditions of Sale.

1. As used in these Conditions of Sale, the term "the final bid" means the highest bid acknowledged by the auctioneer, and the term "the purchase price" means the sum of the final bid and the premium payable by the buyer under Condition 4.
2. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. The auctioneer has the right to reject any bid, to advance the bidding at his absolute discretion, and, in the event of any dispute between bidders, to determine the successful bidder or to reoffer and resell the lot in dispute. Should there be any dispute after the sale, Christie's record of final sale shall be conclusive.
3. Christie's reserves the right to withdraw any lot before or at the sale.
4. The purchase price payable by a buyer shall be the sum of the final bid and a premium of 10% of the final bid.
5. All lots marked with • next to the lot number are offered subject to a reserve, which is the confidential minimum price agreed to with the seller below which the lot will not be sold ("seller's reserve"). Christie's shall act to protect the seller's reserve as agent of the seller by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the seller. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the seller up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing consecutive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.
6. Title to the offered lot shall pass to the buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer when the auctioneer announces that the lot has been sold, and such buyer shall forthwith assume full risk and responsibility for the lot, and may be required to (i) sign a confirmation of purchase, (ii) supply his name and address, (iii) pay the full purchase price or such part thereof as Christie's, in its sole discretion, shall require, and (iv) comply with such other Conditions of Sale as may be applicable. If the buyer fails to comply with any such requirement, the lot may, at the auctioneer's discretion, be reoffered and resold.
7. No lot may be removed from Christie's premises unless the purchase price thereof has first been paid in full or upon satisfaction of terms that Christie's, in its sole discretion, shall require. All lots are to be paid for and removed from Christie's premises at the buyer's expense no later than 4:30 p.m. of the third business day following the sale. Buyers will be charged a late charge of 1½% per month on the total purchase price if payment in full is not received by Christie's in accordance with these Conditions of Sale.
8. Bids which are submitted to Christie's in writing or are otherwise left with Christie's prior to an auction ("Order Bids") for execution at or below a specified price shall be entertained and executed by Christie's for the convenience of bidders, but Christie's shall not be responsible for failing to execute such bids or for errors relating to its execution of such bids.

9. The buyer shall at the time the purchase price is paid pay any state and local sales tax and/or any compensating use tax which Christie's, in its sole judgment, determines to be applicable and which Christie's is required to collect.

10. If any conditions contained herein are not complied with by the buyer, Christie's may, in addition to asserting all remedies available by law, including the right to hold such defaulting buyer liable for the purchase price, either (i) cancel the sale, retaining as liquidated damages any payment made by the buyer, (ii) resell the property without reserve at public auction or privately on seven days' notice to the buyer, or (iii) take such other action as it deems necessary or appropriate. If Christie's resells the property, the original defaulting buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency in the purchase price and all costs and expenses, including warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorney's fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. Any buyer who fails to comply with the conditions contained herein will be deemed to have granted Christie's a security interest in any property owned by such buyer that is in Christie's possession. Christie's shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code adopted in the state where the auction is held.

11. Christie's warrants that any article offered in this catalogue is not counterfeit. EXCEPT FOR THIS WARRANTY, ALL PROPERTY IS SOLD "AS IS". All reference made to the condition of any lot offered herein, including adjectival and numerical descriptions of coins and other numismatic items, are the opinion of the catalogueur, and no warranty, expressed or implied, including any warranty of merchantability, is made with respect to such adjectival or numerical descriptions, which can and do vary among experts. Any claims involving errors in the catalogue must be made in writing to Christie's within thirty days of the date of sale. If, after written notification to Christie's within thirty days of the date of sale, the article has been returned and proved to be counterfeit, the sale will be rescinded and the full purchase price refunded. The benefits of this warranty are not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original buyer of the lot and not subsequent assigns, purchasers, heirs, owners or others who have or may acquire an interest therein and is conditioned upon the buyer returning the article to Christie's, 302 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022, in the same condition as at the time of sale. The buyer's sole remedy under this warranty shall be the rescission of the sale and refund of the original purchase price paid for the article. This remedy shall be exclusive and the seller and Christie's shall not be liable for any incidental or consequential damages.

12. The respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed and interpreted by the laws of the state in which the auction is held. By bidding at an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by written bid, telephone or other means, the buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the jurisdiction of the courts of such state and the federal courts sitting in such state.

and 2:00 p.m. precisely (lots 312-652)

In sending bids or making enquiries, this sale should be referred to as CLOISTERS-7310

Christie's will be pleased to provide a condition report for any lot on request. Nevertheless intending buyers are reminded that each lot is sold "as is", and their attention is drawn to Paragraph 11 of the Conditions of Sale.

PROPERTY SOLD FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CLOISTERS CHILDREN'S MUSEUM OF BALTIMORE

Approximately half the lots in this sale (a full list appears below) are being sold to benefit the Cloisters Children's Museum of Baltimore.

The Museum program is distinguished by year-round hands-on exhibitions, special performances and art activities, and workshops. Focus areas for educational programming include the man-made and natural environment, the local and global community, and the literary, visual and performing arts. In addition to family visits, the Cloisters serves the community through school tours, outreach activities and Head Start workshops which supplement the programs of local centers by providing parent/child activities in art, storytelling, music and movement in the unique environment of the Cloisters. 'Shareships' for teachers introduce creative teaching techniques and provide encouragement and idea-sharing opportunities.

The coins themselves came originally from the Estate of Mrs. Sumner A. Parker whose generous bequest of the family home 'The Cloisters' in Brooklandville near Baltimore led to the foundation of the Museum. The collection was put together by an ancestor of Mrs. Parker in the late 19th and early 20th Centuries. The collector concentrated on what were, at the time fairly 'modern' issues, date runs of Barber, Nickel and Copper coinage, partial rolls of 1862 Half-Dimes, 1875S Twenty-Cent pieces and of course 1860O Half-Dollars (see our magnificent cover photograph). He or she always tried to acquire the finest quality pieces and of course, in time, the collection has become very valuable. The collection seems to have been completed just after the First World War with the purchase of rolls of 1918S Quarters, 1919 Buffalo Nickels, and a splendid Panama Pacific Exposition five-piece Commemorative Set (lot 598). It was then deposited in the family vault and left untouched until the Spring of 1991. Seven of the finest pieces from the collection appear enlarged and in color on the following pages.

Christie's is delighted to have been chosen to assist the Cloisters Children's Museum of Baltimore through the sale of this splendid collection.

AN UNPRECEDENTED OFFERING OF FEDERAL RESERVE BANK NOTE SHEETS

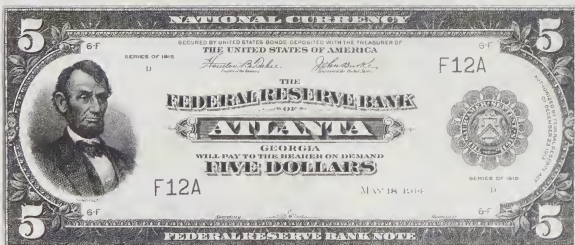

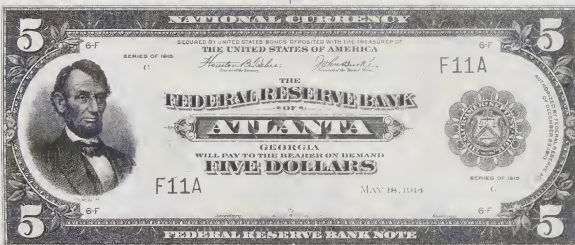

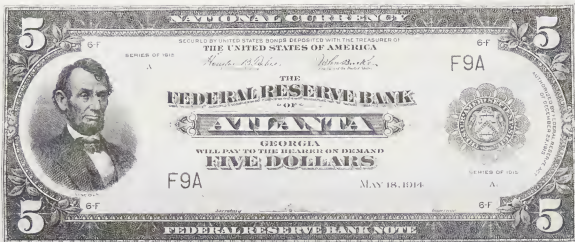

The next five lots each contain previously unrecorded Five-Dollar sheets. Not since the Grinnell Sale nearly half a century ago has an uncut sheet of Federal Reserve Bank Notes been offered. That collection contained three sheets: a sheet of Ten-Dollar notes (realized $355), and a sheet of Twenty-Dollar notes (realized $455). The following five lots are the only sheets of Five-Dollar Federal Reserve Bank Notes known. Their significance is enhanced by their low serial numbers, FIA-F205.

- 155 - Federal Reserve Bank Notes: $5, 1915 (Fr-789), an uncut sheet of four, serial numbers FIA-F205, extremely fine, covered the pinholes and slight evidence of handling, an important rarity $4,000-6,000

- 455 1860C1, one mint state, heavily toned with a light reddish color around the edges and a small brownish staining point to the left of the shield; extraordinary luster, one of the best in the roll (NGC 65) $7,000-8,000
- 150 1860C1, very noticeable, slightly increased lustrous surfaces and virtually mark free (NGC 65) $7,000-8,000
- 457 1860C2, gem mint state, this piece appears to have been at the end of the roll; the obverse is a medium gray with brown and blue highlights, reverse untreated (NGC 65) $7,000-8,000
- 458 1860C5, very close to gem mint state, the obverse with a light red mottled tone, the reverse bright and untoned (NGC 64) $3,000-5,000
- 459 1860C7, very close to gem mint, bright and untoned on both sides with occasional reddish color at the edges (NGC 64) $3,000-4,000
- 460 1860C1, very close mint state, perhaps another end-of-the-roll coin, the obverse a deep bluish gray, the reverse bright and untoned (NGC 64) $3,000-4,000
- 461 1860C5, close to very close mint state and untoned $2,000-3,000
- 462 1860C1, close to very close mint state, possibly even better but with a couple of tiny verdigris spots on both the obverse at 4 o'clock; the reverse at 1 o'clock and 3 o'clock, otherwise exceptionally bright and untoned $800-1,200
- 463 1860C1, close to very close mint state, exceptional luster, untoned surfaces $800-1,200
- 464 1860C5, close to very close mint state, the obverse bright and almost mark free, the reverse a dark pinkish gray $800-1,200
- 465 1860C7, close to very close mint state, some minor surface abrasions but exceptionally brilliant $800-1,200
- 466 1860C3, close mint state or better, exceptionally bright, light surface marks only $800-1,200
- 467 1860C1, close mint state, bright, untoned and lustrous, minor surface abrasions only ... $800-1,200
- 468 1860C1, close mint state, untoned and exceptionally bright $800-1,200

THE PROPERTY OF THE SAWYER FAMILY

- 524 Georgia, Templeton Reid, $2½, 1830 (Breen, Complete Encyclopedia of U.S. and Colonial Coins, 7730), with what may well be toothmarks at 7 o'clock on the obverse, 5 o'clock on the reverse, not significantly affecting the devices, otherwise a very attractive very fine with a lovely red tone, one of perhaps two-dozen that survive from America's first and least known Gold Rush, this piece is known to have belonged to the present owners' grandmother and is being offered for the first time since the 19th Century $20,000-30,000

A BRIEF HISTORY OF MR. TEMPLETON REID
AND HIS GEORGIA MINT

Many Americans don't know that the first American Gold Rush was to Georgia and North Carolina in 1828. Though gold was discovered as early as 1799 in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, publicity (or lack thereof) wasn't sufficient to fire "Gold Fever" until 1828. When it finally did, hundreds of miners descended upon poverty-stricken Southern Appalachia. The area's population grew hundredfold practically overnight, and one result was an extreme shortage of circulating coinage.

To combat the problem, miners began a barter system based on the readily available gold dust. The system worked in a fashion but was very impractical; gold dust was lost at a rate of about 5-15% during transportation, re-wrapping, repackaging, etc.

Mr. Templeton Reid (1789-1851), a man of German descent and a resident of Milledgeville, Georgia was a jack of all trades. At various times he made a living as a jeweler, metalworker, gunsmith, watchmaker and cotton gin manufacturer. Reid's biographer, Dr. Dexter Seymour, speculates that Reid began working on the idea of minting a private coinage when the Georgia Gold Rush began in 1828.

Reid's first coins were struck in Milledgeville in 1830. A newspaper clipping from the July 24th Georgia Journal reads:

"...our very ingenious fellow citizen, Mr. Templeton Reid ... makes with great facility and great neatness, pieces worth ten, five and two and a half dollars. No alloy is mixed with it, and it is so stamped that it cannot be easily imitated."

In August, Reid moved his mint to Gainesville, Georgia to be closer to the center of the mining district. His business was quite successful and he was a trusted assayer; even some local banks accepted his coins at face value.

Success, however, brought jealousy. Complaints, largely in editorial form from the mysterious and malevolent "No Assayer," were first leveled at Reid on August 16th in the Georgia Courier. They centered on the gold content and weight of Reid's coins, and his seigniorage charges. "No Assayer" further contended that the private minting of coins was unconstitutional. Reid defended his operation on all counts, and modern numismatic historians seem to be on his side. According to Walter Breen, Reid's coins were "very slightly" lighter than federal $2½ coins, but their gold content was about .942 Fine as opposed to the federal .917; so Reid's coins were actually worth a little more than face value as bullion. However, the negative publicity forced Reid to shut his mint on about October 18th, 1830 after a total of four months of sporadic production.

It is estimated that Templeton Reid produced about 1,500 coins during those four months, two-thirds of which were two and a half dollar pieces. Almost all of his coins were melted down at the Philadelphia mint soon after they fell out of use in Georgia.
